Trent said that if the new Organic Act gave the commissioner power to reject applications for plantation lands and compel the applicant to take other lands for homesteads there was some thing wrong with the law. He declared further that if the office of commissioner should be held under such a law by a person hostile to the homesteading policy the whole plan and the spirit of the law which the public believed had been enacted for the general welfare would come to naught and homesteading would be a fiction instead of a fact.

The discussion began when Trent said e had heard that influences had been brought to bear to discourage hometending, the dividing up of plantation inds the leases on which have expired. He wanted particularly to know wheth-(Continued on Page Four.)

REVOLUTION IS STARTED IN SPAIN

The Government Sends Troops---Merry Del Val Will Quit.

SAN SEBASTIAN, August 5 .- The most sensational development in the controversy between the Spanish cabnet and the Vatican took place yesterlay, when an insurrectionary movement was started in three northern provinces, Biseay, Navarra and Alava.

The imperial government started regiments of troops to the scenes of trouble as soon as the news of the insurrection reached Madrid, and addional military forces will be sent from day to day until the trouble is ever.

The insurrection grew out of dissatisfaction with the policies of Premier analejas, who granted new privileges to Protestants and favored the secularization of schools.
